

UGLY MOB HOOTS HANNA:

STOCK YARDS TROOPS TRY TO DOWN HIM, BUT FAIL.

They Wanted to Know Where He Got His Money. Told Him He Was a Scab and Hooted Him—But He Paid Them Back and With McKinley Interest—Building Methods and the President Burned in Embrace—Hanna Says Webster Davis Got $125,000 for What He Did—Other Chicago Riots.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 14.—Senator Hanna last night fought a match for two hundred rounds, scattered through an audience of 15,000 persons, many of them being Aldermen Thomas Carney, Indians of the Twentieth century and who were in the big tent at Sherman and Forty-second streets. The disturbances, intent on causing trouble, kept up a continual uproar and prevented Congressman Foraker and others from making speeches.

When the Republican National chairman started to speak the uproar increased and lasted five minutes. When it ceased he started to speak, and the disturbances started their shouts anew.

The Senator waited ten minutes, then he stepped to the front of the arena and raised his hand for silence. The commanding presence of Mr. Hanna awed the roughs who had jeered him and every mention of his name. They did not cease their interruptions at once, but gradually they gave up their task, and before the Senator had finished he received the most respectful attention.

When the Senator stepped back to his seat he was all broken down. A severe cramp in his left leg kept him great pain, and he had to be assisted to his chair.

Senator Hanna arrived at the big tent at 9:30 o'clock and, aided by several policemen and a sheriff, he forced his way through the crowd of rioters to the platform. He was not recognized until he mounted the steps.

"There's Mark Hanna," a boy shouted, and the shouts in the crowd set up a shout and cheer. The Senator was introduced and the uproar began in earnest. After five minutes, waiting the Senator made himself heard about twenty times in single sentences, a pause of three minutes came. All quiet except for a few rowdies who shouted at the speaker.

The Senator said: "Your action to-night will make McKinley 10,000 votes and Billy Towner 200 votes. Every man will want to see you. (Voice: "Not here in the stock yards.") If any man in this audience wants to discuss the issues of this campaign with me he is invited to come to the platform—that is, if he has the moral courage."

"You're a scab," shouted the disturber. "You're another," answered the Senator, and the crowd roared on the questioner. "Where did you get your money?" shouted the youth.

"I earned every dollar of it by honest labor and I am paying my employees the highest wages paid in the United States."

"How about the coal strike?" interrupted boy orator No. 2. "That will be settled to-morrow, and then ask John Mitchell who got those men the 10 per cent increase of wages."

"How about Hay?" asked the boy. "How about Strauss?" answered the Senator and the crowd roared on the questioner. "What did Congress turn down the Boers?" asked disturber No. 2.

"Ours was the only government in the world to extend sympathy to the Boers; Congress voted to limit its powers," was the answer. "How about Webster Davis?" asked the persistent youth.

"He got $125,000 for what he did."

"That's a lie. I know him, and he wouldn't do that."

"It will be proved soon. He went to the Boers and represented himself as Secretary of State. He proved himself a traitor to his country as well as to his party."

Some queries about trusts were answered to the satisfaction of the audience and the boy orator retired in confusion. "Did the Democrats give you the youth?" asked a man who noticed that the Senator was limping.

"Yes," was the answer. After a few minutes talk the Senator retired with a substantial victory to his credit.

DIED BY ROPE, GAS AND BULLET.

Saloon Keeper Wilkens, Locked in His Icebox, Sought Three Deaths in One.

Dependent after several months of continuous illness, Henry Wilkens, the proprietor of a saloon at 104 Nassau street, killed himself yesterday, taking more remarkable precautions to insure his death than any other suicide in this city in years. Wilkens was found dead at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the ice box in the basement of his saloon. He was hanging from a hook in the ceiling, the ice box was full of gas and there were two bullet wounds over his heart. The pistol, lying by a piece of string to a towel tied around his throat, and a rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

Wilkens left his home at 254 East Nineteenth street, Brooklyn, about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, telling his wife that he was coming to Manhattan to see doctor and to see his mother. He left a note for his wife, saying that he was going to see his mother and to see his mother.

Wilkens telegraphed to his wife's sister, Mrs. Schmitt, asking her to go to his home, and then he telegraphed to his mother, saying that there might be a case for him in the afternoon, and that he would be home in the evening. He sent out the bookkeeper's brother to keep with a note, his contents being that he was going to see his mother and to see his mother.

In the morning Mrs. Wilkens and her sister, Mrs. Schmitt, went to his home and found his body hanging from a hook in the ceiling. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

When the police arrived at the scene they found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

The police found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him. They found the ice box full of gas and the rubber tube attached to the gas jet had fallen beside him.

$50,000 IN CONTRIBUTIONS.

THE REV. A. B. SIMPSON RAISES FUNDS TO SPREAD THE GOSPEL.

Gifts in Cash, Jewelry and Promises—The Money to Be Used in Maintaining the Agents of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Who Work in Foreign Countries.

To the music of an organ, a piano, a violin, two cellos and a vocal quartet, the Rev. A. B. Simpson, of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, $50,000 in contributions, cash, jewelry and gold nuggets at yesterday's special offering service in his Gospel Tabernacle at Eighth avenue and Forty-third street. The promises were in an overwhelming number, but the Rev. Mr. Simpson declared that they were largely made good.

The occasion was the annual convention of the alliance. It has been in session for several days, the proceedings consisting mainly of prayer and exhortation yesterday morning. The Rev. Mr. Simpson preached to a packed house and was well up to a high pitch of excitement. At times there were shouts of emotion from men and women as he touched upon topics that especially appealed to them. He had in the church all the accompaniments which he has found useful in inspiring his hearers. On the walls back of the pulpit were three maps representing the field of mission work and kindred subjects. One map showed the religion of all the countries on the earth in colors. Heathendom was painted black, the Greek Church green, Catholicism red, Protestantism blue, Mohammedanism purple, and the rest of the world in various shades of gray.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson, a tall, thin, white-haired man, with a high forehead and a high nose, was dressed in a dark suit and a white shirt with a high collar. He was standing at the front of the pulpit, which was a simple wooden structure. He was speaking into a microphone, and his voice was clear and strong. He was looking at the audience, and his expression was one of earnestness and conviction.

MIDNIGHT HUSBAND HUNT.

Chase That Brought Young Hopper to the Tenderloin.

People living near Riverside Drive and Eighty-eighth street were startled last Saturday night by the screams of a woman who called for help. Two young women servants ran out of a fine house in Eighty-eighth street. They were followed by a man who tossed several articles of wearing apparel after them. The man went back into the house after he had tossed the clothing down to the street. A few minutes later two more women, also said to be servants, were elected from the house. One of the women said that after they had been put out the man went back into the house, lit all the gas jets on each of the floors and then put on his coat, locked the house and went away.

His wife, who had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

At the house of the Townsend family, the woman said that she had been out of town for a week, and had come home before she expected, appeared at the house at midnight. She was unable to get in. She went to the house of a neighbor to seek advice. The neighbor was Miss R. B. Townsend, who lives in a house on Riverside Drive. She called on the woman and her husband, who was with her. The Townsend family and the family of Isaac A. Hopper of Harlem, the Tammany leader of the Thirty-first district, were living in the house.

CRAZY WOMAN IN TROUSERS

KEPT OUT OF GRACE CHURCH SHE DOES STUNTS IN BROADWAY.

Then Makes a Dash for Freedom at Bellevue and Leads Two Heavy Cops a Fine Dance Over the Flower Beds Likes Her's Attire Because It's Pretty and Comfortable.

One of the ushers of Grace Church who was standing near the door just before the morning service began yesterday saw a person whom at first glance he took to be a youth about 15 years old approaching the door. The usher looked over the congregation to pick out the person, but he could not find him. The person then turned around and looked at the usher. But at the second look he dropped, rubbed his eyes and started in horror. The "youth" was plainly a woman in boy's clothing.

The woman's appearance was certainly startling. She was of medium height, but she weighed fully 150 pounds. She wore a dark suit, a high collar, a pair of knickerbockers, black stockings and a black bicycle cap. "You can't come here," said the usher sternly to the woman. "Go home and change your self decently."

"You won't let me have any fun," pouted the woman. "I'll take a policeman," said the usher and the woman turned away. But half a block up Broadway she stopped and began making a speech in which she denounced the church and its ushers. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman. She said that she was a woman and that she was a woman.

RESCUED FROM THE FILIPINOS.

Capt. Devereaux Shields and His Fifty Men Are Safe.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN. MANILA, Oct. 14.—Capt. Devereaux Shields and fifty American soldiers belonging to the Twenty-ninth Infantry, who were recently captured by Filipinos on the island of Marinduque, were rescued yesterday by the force sent out for that purpose.

Wreck on the West Shore. Freight Train Runs into a Landslide—Two Engines and Thirteen Cars Wrecked. HIGHLAND PARK, N. Y., Oct. 14.—In the heavy rainstorm this morning a special freight train on the West Shore Railroad dashed into a landslide from Storm King Mountain, two miles north of West Point, at 3 o'clock this morning. The train was a double-header of Maudslayi engines, and it was carrying thirteen cars, a complete wreck. Fireman Hannan of the first engine was wedged in between his engine and the tender and is probably fatally injured. He was also badly scalded from escaping steam and endured the torture for one hour and a half before he was extricated. He was subsequently taken to St. Luke's Hospital in Newburgh. Both the up and down tracks are blocked with the wreckage.

THE PORTO RICAN COMMISSIONER. Federalists Have Nominated Manuel Gatell, Who Is Now in This Country. Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN. SAN JUAN DE PORTO RICO, Oct. 14.—Manuel Gatell has been nominated by the Federalists in an advisory capacity for the position of Commissioner of the Porto Rican Commission. He is a naturalized American and has spent eight years in the United States. He is employed in the Post Office here, but is now in Detroit, Mich. The Republicans previously nominated Frederico Degetau.

Munoz Rivera insists that immediately after the election he will sail for New York, where he will establish a newspaper to defend Porto Rico.

POLICE CAPTAIN TO THE RESCUE. Banned His Hands, but Was Too Late to Save a Woman From Death by Fire. Strikers for help from the tenant at 229 Clinton street were heard by Acting Captain Hannan of the Madison street police station as he was on his way home at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Smoke was pouring out of the third-floor windows of the tenement and the rank of the fire was visible from the street. The acting captain sprang up the tenement stairs. Mrs. Fanny Janowsky, who lived on the third floor with her husband Israel was running down the stairs. She was carrying a child in her arms. The fire was so intense that the acting captain was unable to reach the third floor. He was forced to wait until the fire was under control. The woman was rescued, but she was badly injured. She was taken to the hospital and is now recovering.

MAN WITH WOMAN'S HAT ON SHOT. Was Wearing It for Fun and a Hunter Shot at the Millery Road. DENVER, Col., Oct. 14.—A shot fired to-day at a stuffed bird which the hunter supposed to be alive instantly killed Arthur W. Green of Denver. The bird was on a woman's hat which Green was wearing as a joke. He was on his way to the millery road. The shot was fired by a hunter who was on the millery road. The hunter was on the millery road. The hunter was on the millery road.

NIGHT WATCHMAN ASSASSINATED. Shot Down as He Was Going Into the Office of the Mills He Was Watching. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 14.—William Westmoreland, for the past five years private night watchman at the Pottsville Cotton Mills in Buttersville, a suburb of Pittsburgh, was assassinated this morning at about half past 1 o'clock by some unknown party. The watchman was on his way to the office of the Mills. He was on the millery road. The hunter was on the millery road. The hunter was on the millery road.

SKIPPER HURT ON THE BRIDGE. Wire Rope Hit and Disabled Him When a Cap Boomed the Cap Hit. The Hamburg American liner Cap Frick arrived yesterday from Hamburg and Bonholzer, ran into lots of rough weather in midsea. A great storm toppled over the weather bow in Monday afternoon while Capt. J. G. von Heiden was on the bridge. A steel cable, which was used for the weather bow, was hit by a wire rope. The cable was hit by a wire rope. The cable was hit by a wire rope.

HEXICAN SOLDIERS KILLED. Ambushed by Maya Indians in Their Advance on Yucatan. AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 14.—A despatch from OAXACA, Mexico, says: "There has been some fighting between the Government troops and the Maya Indians in Yucatan during the past two weeks. The advance of the Government forces upon Chan Santa Cruz, the Maya stronghold, has been strongly resisted. The Indians have killed several Government soldiers. The Government forces are now advancing on Chan Santa Cruz. The Government forces are now advancing on Chan Santa Cruz.

SOLDIER LOVER LEFT HER. Young Woman Found Poisoned in Central Park Tells Why She Was Poisoned to Die. Mary Killman, the young woman who was found in the Central Park, was found in the Central Park. She was found in the Central Park. She was found in the Central Park. She was found in the Central Park. She was found in the Central Park.

POISONER'S WEDDING GIFT. Deed to a $25,000 House From the Bride's Father. Charles A. Heckler, a policeman attached to the West Forty-seventh street station, and a son of his bride, was married last night by the Rev. Father James in the Church of the Sacred Heart to Antoinette Lager, the daughter of Jacob J. Lager, a saloon keeper of Ninth avenue. The wedding was a very quiet affair. The bride was wearing a white dress. The bride was wearing a white dress. The bride was wearing a white dress.

Chief Officer Washed Overboard and Lost. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The British ship Alvin arrived to-day from Antwerp and reported that Chief Officer George W. Moore was washed overboard and drowned in a storm while the vessel was off Cape Horn. The vessel was on its way to San Francisco. The vessel was on its way to San Francisco. The vessel was on its way to San Francisco.

IN CHINA'S SACRED CITY.

MARCH OF THE VICTORIOUS ALLIES THROUGH THE PALACE COURTS.

Apartment of the Royal Family Invaded by Some Nightstayers, but Not by the Troops—Surprising Signs of Neglect and Decay in the Forbidden City—Natural Beauties and Rare Carvings There Also—Some Looting—Grief of the Chinese at the Invasion.

From a Staff Correspondent of THE SUN. PEKING, Aug. 28.—After two weeks hovering about its gates, wondering what it might contain and wrangling as to